

9 Hole Tour

The 9 Hole Tour consists of one day 9 Hole tournaments throughout the summer. There are separate divisions for the following age divisions: Boys 7-11 and 12-14; Girls 7-11 and 12-18. This tour is meant to be a vehicle for new players to develop their games and experience an introduction to competitive golf. Suggested scoring average for the 9 Hole Divisions is 55 and above for 9 holes. As a member of the 9 Hole Tour you are eligible to play in any 9 Hole Tour event regardless of residence. Pull carts may be used where permitted. You will be notified via email of any courses that do not allow pull carts. There is a double par maximum on every hole and is no Player of the Year race. No spectators are permitted; however, we do have volunteer chaperones with the 7-11 division. Please note that parents cannot chaperone their own child.

Players Tour

The Players Tour consists of one day 18 Hole tournaments throughout the summer. There are separate divisions for Boys ages 12-14 and 15-18, and Girls ages 12-18. All players must carry their bags: there are no pull carts, caddies, or spectators permitted. There is a Player of the Year race in each division for both boys and girls. Please Note: The Players Tour is no longer separated by region. As a member of the Players Tour you are eligible to play in any Players Tour event regardless of residence.

Future Series Tour

Future Series tournaments are two day 36 Hole events that take place throughout the spring, summer, and fall. There is one overall age division for both Boys 12-18 and Girls 12-18. In order to participate boys must have a Handicap Index of 10 or below (scoring average of 82 or below) and girls must have a Handicap Index of 15 or below (scoring average of 90 or below). Some championship events will have a cut after the first day. All players must carry their bags and there are no pull carts or caddies permitted. Spectators will be permitted at select events. There is a Player of the Year race for both boys and girls. The Future Series is not separated by region. As a member of the Future Series Tour you are eligible to play in any Future Series Tournament and Players Tour event regardless of residence.
